

Na Gaeil Notes Monday November 29th 2021

Intermediate Final Na Gaeil will play Beaufort in the County Intermediate Final on this coming Saturday, December 4th in Fitzgerald Stadium at 1.45pm. This is a historic day for the club as it is our first time reaching the final of this competition. Na Gaeil and Beaufort are no strangers to each other as they have met frequently in big games over the last number of years. All have been close contests with little separating the sides in the end. So Saturday's encounter should be no different. It is indeed a great occasion for our club and we urge you all to come out and support the team next weekend for what should be a cracking game of football. We wish the Na Gaeil squad and management team the very best of luck.

Tickets Tickets for the Intermediate Final can be purchased on the Kerry GAA website. Tickets for the Senior County Final the following day between Austin Stacks and Kerins O'Rahillys which takes place in Austin Stack Park are also available for purchase.

Hats & Flags Na Gaeil car flags and beanie hats are for sale in the clubhouse and in Byrnes Spar, Oakpark so we look forward to seeing you sporting your club colours at the final.

Na Gaeilgoers It's Back! Na Gaeilgoers walking / running group is back every Monday and Thursday evening at 7.30pm sharp. Start your fitness journey by walking or running 5km while also getting fresh air and meeting new people. High vis jackets a must. Route will be around Tralee town and will be explained on the night. Children welcome but must be accompanied by an adult throughout the route. Please arrive at Na Gaeil and have parked by 7.25pm. Respect social distancing. This event will go ahead unless there is a weather warning. So please come along and join us.

AGM Our club AGM will now take place on Thursday, January 20th 2022 at 8pm. Any motions will have to be submitted to John Keating at secretary.nagaeil.kerry@gaa.ie by Thursday, December 30th 2021.
