Kerry LGFA: Mary O'Connell and the Kerry Ladies continued their great form by registering their 5th straight win in the Lidl Ladies National Football League last Saturday when they beat Meath by 12 points in Brosna. The win sees them through to the Division 1 final.

Allianz Football League: Well done to the Kerry team especially Jack Barry and Stefan Okunbor who got the better of Armagh by a single point last Saturday in Round 4 of the National League Division 1. It was a special occasion for Stefan as it was his first time starting for the team.

Senior Ladies: Over the weekend our senior ladies team took part in the Paidí O'Sé Tournament in An Ghaeltacht. They lost out narrowly to Thomas Davis from Dublin but then went on to win the Shield final against Crosserlough from Cavan.

Senior Men's Tralee/St. Brendans Board Fixtures: Our senior team played their third and final game in the Tralee/St. Brendans Board league last Friday night away to John Mitchels. It was a close, competitive game all through but in the end it was John Mitchels who finished stronger to win on a scoreline of John Mitchels 2-12, Na Gaeil 2-9. The focus now switches to the County League which will begin on St. Patrick's weekend in March. Our first game will be away to An Ghaeltacht.
