U15 Boys: Our U15A boys played Ballymac in Div 1 Central Region last Wednesday evening in Killeen. It was a great game of football and the first half was almost point for point, ending in Ballymac leading 0-7 to 0-6 at halftime. The second half started similar but our boys through great defending and great point taking up front started to get their noses in front. Ballymac battled hard but our lads stood firm and really took their scores well. Final score on the night was Na Gaeil 0-16 to Ballymac 0-11. Thanks to Ballymac for a great game and referee Gary Kissane for a great game also. Our U15B team had no game this week. We wish all our players involved in the U15 St. Brendan's championship team the very best of luck for Wednesday 2nd where they play Eoghan Ruadh at 7pm in Blennerville.
