

Na Gaeil notes Monday 4th April 2022.

Senior Co. League: Last Sunday Na Gaeil hosted Listry in round 2 of the County League Division 2. Na Gaeil started brightly and led by 5 points to 1 after 12 minutes and looked to be in control. Listry worked the ball upfield for a goal to keep them in touch. Both teams added points leaving the halftime score Na Gaeil 0-10, Listry 1-6. Na Gaeil dominated the 3rd quarter and stretched their lead to 5 points with just 15 minutes remaining. However Listry finished the last 15 minutes stronger, adding 4 points from play and 1 from a free to level the match. Final score: Na Gaeil 0-15, Listry 1-12.

Na Gaeil TV: Watch out for Na Gaeil TV's "The Green Flag". Last Saturday night was the launch of the final episode, episode 5. Its a showcase for everything Na Gaeil. Catch it on Na Gaeil's Facebook page and other social media outlets.

Lotto results: Lotto 29th March 2022. No winner. Numbers drawn were 5, 17, 21, 30. Lucky dip winners of €20 each were Joseph McGarry, Tomás Ó hAiniféin, Gene & Madeline Kelly, Emer Hogan, Tim Behan. Next week's jackpot will be €6,750.

Kerry team: Well done to the Kerry team, especially Diarmuid O'Connor & Jack Barry who retained the National League Div. 1 title against Mayo last Sunday.

Congratulations: Well done to Na Gaeil players Emer O'Sullivan, Sorcha Casey, Gráinne Quirke, Róisín O'Mahony, Kate Burke & Elsie-Peig Rogers who were part of the Gaelcholáiste Chiarraí girls football team who won the Munster Post Primary Senior E Cup final beating Waterpark of Waterford by 2-18 to 3-7 last week.

U9 boys: The u 9 boys were up bright and early last Sunday and enjoyed a wonderful morning of football in Killeen. The session concentrated on tacking and passing and the coaches are delighted with the progress the boys are making!

U11 boys: Our U11s had a wonderful turnout last Sunday at training considering Kerry were playing in Dublin also. The main focus of our session was maintaining possession and hand passing. We finished up with a game of Backs and Forwards focussing on the lads being able to play in their positions. Well done everyone.

U13 boys: Na Gaeil Green played Ballymac last Sunday evening in the Co. League Round 2 at 6pm in Killeen. Great sporting game with both sides working very hard. Some fantastic scores were got by both sides and the defending was excellent and disciplined throughout. Well done to our lads who just seemed to take their scores that bit better on the day and came out worthy winners in the end. Goalie kick outs were excellent also. Final score 3-17 to 3-0 in favour of Na Gaeil. Na Gaeil White played at 7pm and again a very tough game. Na Gaeil started better but every time we seemed to be on top, Ballymac came back with fine scores to tighten the game up. Na Gaeil's midfield was outstanding tonight giving a great transition from our defence to our forwards. Scores were taken very well and defence was again very disciplined. Goalie kick outs were excellent making it easy for us to build the attack. That said Ballymac got it back to 3 points in the second half but our lads raised the standard again and finished that bit stronger. Final score was Na Gaeil 5-14, Ballymac 3-7. Thanks to Ballymac for two fine games.

U15 boys: Our u15 lads began their county league Div 3B campaign last Wednesday away to Listowel Emmets. Unfortunately Emmets proved too strong for us and won out on a scoreline of Listowel Emmets 5-10, Na Gaeil 0-14. Team: Iarla Ó hAiniféin, Jack Kelly, Daragh Morris, Cathal Fitzgerald, Brian Heaphy, Ruadhan Clifford, Cillian Griffin, Will Somers, Jamie Schoenmaker, Jake Coffey, Conor Lucey, David Walsh, Paddy McElligott, Liam Cooper, Brian Reidy. Subs: Karl Cronin, Fionn O'Brien & Cathal O'Sullivan. Round 2 of the competition sees us away to Ardfert next Wednesday at 7pm.

U17 boys: Our minors have their final game in the County League next Thursday 7th when they travel to play Tarbert.
